

Carbonite Closes Acquisition of Webroot

March 26, 2019

Transaction combines data backup and recovery technology with cybersecurity platform to deliver complete data protection for customers and their endpoints

BOSTON & BROOMFIELD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 26, 2019-- Carbonite, Inc. (NASDAQ: CARB), a leading cloud-based data protection provider, today closed its previously announced acquisition of Webroot Inc. The combination of cloud-based backup and recovery with cloud-based cybersecurity introduces a new approach to data protection for the endpoint.

The total purchase price for Webroot was $618.5 million in cash, as adjusted with respect to cash, debt, transaction expenses and working capital. The purchase price was funded with existing cash on hand and funds secured under a new $550 million term loan. The interest rate on the term loan is a floating rate based upon LIBOR plus 3.75%.

The Webroot business unit will be led by John Post, formerly Webroot's CFO, as SVP and GM, and will report directly to Mohamad Ali, President and CEO of Carbonite. Together, Webroot and Carbonite share a common go-to-market approach of delivering customer success through partner channels.

"The combination of these two companies creates a unique and powerful data protection and cybersecurity solution for our customers and partners," said Mohamad Ali, Carbonite CEO. "We are thrilled to officially welcome Webroot to the Carbonite family and look forward to delivering positive results together."

"Webroot and Carbonite share a common vision to empower small and mid-sized businesses with next generation solutions purpose-built for their unique needs," said John Post, SVP and GM of Webroot, a Carbonite company. "I'm confident we will build on the momentum of Carbonite and Webroot's cloud-based approach to protecting endpoint data as we aim to deliver strong results for customers and partners."
